

If you must act, then please model the national act after Indiana's! I receive very few telemarketing calls since signing up for the "No Call", and am no longer frustrated by the intrusion of unwanted, unsolicited marketers in the privacy of my home! Telemarketing should not have the right to interfere with my lifestyle in my own home. Please do not diminish Indiana's law.